

Dear Sibel,

As all conference preparations for the 11th Conference of the European Family Therapy Association are well underway, we would like to inform you about several points in order for you to inform your members directly about all conference news that will be of interest to all those working in the mental health field.

The 11th Conference of the European Family Therapy Association: *Systemic Resonances and Interferences (EFTA2022) will take place in Ljubljana, Slovenia from 7 to 10 September 2022, organized by EFTA (European Family Therapy Association) and co-organized by the Sigmund Freud University Ljubljana and the Faculty of Theology, University of Ljubljana.

Distinguished invited keynote lecturers will present recent and ongoing developments, addressing unresolved issues and projecting ideas for the future. Invited dialogues, symposia, workshops, individual presentations and numerous parallel events will also be carefully organized on selected topics of societal interest, to broaden the horizons of the systemic family therapy community and to reinforce international cooperation links. Family therapists and those from allied health fields from all over the world will find the conference is an excellent forum to exchange ideas, share knowledge and discuss the most recent advances in systemic family therapy.

The EFTA2022 conference is a much-anticipated event for the Family Therapy community worldwide, after two years of social distancing and online participation! It is held every three years and is considered to be the leading activity of EFTA, as well as the baseline and meeting point for the scientific and professional sector at an international level, with more than 1000 delegates from Europe and worldwide.

As it is important for information to be directly conveyed to the broader Family Therapy Community, and for the message to be as widely spread as possible, you are kindly asked to directly forward the promotion elements and news to your members, your associates, and any other colleagues in your mailing list, interested to promote and participate in next year's triennial EFTA meeting in Ljubljana, Slovenia.
