

THE GENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

An invitation to reflect

Malika Verma

BA, MA, MPhil (Clinical Psychology)

Tavistock Qualification in Adult Psychotherapy (TQAP)
Psychoanalytic
Psychotherapist & Clinical Psychologist

ON 27 August 2022

4.30-6 PM

Indian Standard time

UTC+05:30

Rathna Isaac

BA, MA, MPhil (Clinical Psychology), PhD

Psychotherapist & Consultant and Supervisor at Parivarthan, Bangalore

To register for this free online webinar

reflectivepath@gmail.com

Organised by:

Poornima Bhola, PhD, Dept. of Clinical Psychology, NIMHANS, Bangalore

Chetna Duggal, PhD, School of Human Ecology, TISS, Mumbai

Rathna Isaac, PhD, Private Practitioner, Bangalore

Join this reflective space

Malika Verma will discuss some examples of countertransference responses in her therapeutic work and reflect on the impacts of her ingrained culture and heritage – both Indian and psychoanalytic. In speaking of her experience of growing up as a woman in India, she will examine how unacknowledged or renounced parts of ourselves get activated in the therapy room.

Rathna Isaac will share some ideas on how we can use reflection as a tool to connect with our own gendered unconscious and bring this awareness into our therapeutic work.

